CNE, Ontario Place plan single year-round facility

New aquarium, leisure, sports complex eyed

Ontario Place, future home of the CNE, will get a major upgrade that would help remedy Metro's two premier facilities. Work is expected to start in 2022 on a $500-million plan, which includes a year-round leisure and entertainment complex.

 Fraud charges laid in lotto scam

BY HERALD STAFF

Five men were arrested last week at a Ottawa police station, the fifth in a series of arrests in a probe into alleged fraud in the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation.

Legislature wraps up with bill's first reading

BY WALTER WALKER

The Ontario legislature wrapped up for the year Thursday night with passage of the Ontario Budget 2023-24 and the approval of the provincial budget for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2024.

Mega cities vary property taxes

BY PAUL MOLONY

The city of Toronto is the most expensive city in Canada for property owners, with an average property tax of $4,556 in 2022, according to a new report by the Canadian Real Estate Association.

World's best volunteers

BY WILLIAM J. LAIR

The world's best volunteers were recognized at the 2023 World Congress on Volunteerism held in Seoul, South Korea.

Leafs arena talks go into overtime

Negotiators for city, team will meet again today

The City of Toronto and the Toronto Maple Leafs said Thursday they have reached an agreement to construct a new arena in the city's northwest end. The deal, which is expected to be finalized this weekend, will see the city contribute $750 million to the project and the team contribute $750 million.

Blood Donor Clinics

Today

North York Sat, Toronto Medical Bldg, 1200 Bloor St., 1200 Bloor St., 11:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Sunnybrook Health Centre, 205 The Village, 1200 Bloor St., 11:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Sunnybrook Health Centre, 205 The Village, 1200 Bloor St., 11:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Sunday

No Clinics

Camp opens doors to problem children

BY PAUL TAYLOR

The camp, which opened its doors last month, is already seeing a surge in demand.

Indians seek council seat

Members of Toronto's Indigenous community are calling for a new seat on the city council to represent their interests.

Camp opens doors to problem children

BY PAUL TAYLOR

The camp, which opened its doors last month, is already seeing a surge in demand.

Indians seek council seat

Members of Toronto's Indigenous community are calling for a new seat on the city council to represent their interests.

Camp opens doors to problem children

BY PAUL TAYLOR

The camp, which opened its doors last month, is already seeing a surge in demand.

Indians seek council seat

Members of Toronto's Indigenous community are calling for a new seat on the city council to represent their interests.

Camp opens doors to problem children

BY PAUL TAYLOR

The camp, which opened its doors last month, is already seeing a surge in demand.

Indians seek council seat

Members of Toronto's Indigenous community are calling for a new seat on the city council to represent their interests.

Camp opens doors to problem children

BY PAUL TAYLOR

The camp, which opened its doors last month, is already seeing a surge in demand.

Indians seek council seat

Members of Toronto's Indigenous community are calling for a new seat on the city council to represent their interests.

Camp opens doors to problem children

BY PAUL TAYLOR

The camp, which opened its doors last month, is already seeing a surge in demand.

Indians seek council seat

Members of Toronto's Indigenous community are calling for a new seat on the city council to represent their interests.

Camp opens doors to problem children

BY PAUL TAYLOR

The camp, which opened its doors last month, is already seeing a surge in demand.

Indians seek council seat

Members of Toronto's Indigenous community are calling for a new seat on the city council to represent their interests.